Educational and Salary Characteristics of High Demand Information Technology Occupations in Nevada					Related Programs Offered at NV Colleges and Universities
Occupations	Overview	Annual Job Openings	Average Annual Salary	Training and Education
		NV	NV
Software Developers	Computer engineers design and test computer hardware and software.	99	$ 96,130	Bachelors, Masters, Doctorate	UNLV, UNR, TMCC, NATIONAL, DEVRY, PIMA, IADT, UOP
Cyber Security/IA Professionals	Computer security specialists set up plans to protect companies' information and technology from outsiders.	48	$ 74,460	AA, Bachelors	CSN, ITT, MU, UOP
Network/Systems Administrators	Computer systems administrators design, install, and support an organization's computer system.	57	$ 67,800	Bachelors, Masters	UNLV, UNR, CSN, NATIONAL, UOP, DEVRY, ITT, MU, Pima,
Healthcare IT Techs	Health information technicians collect, code, and maintain medical information about patients.	42	$ 34,600	AA	UNLV, UNR, CSN
Database Administrators	Database administrators create and maintain computer database systems.	3	$ 71,190	Bachelors, Masters, Doctorate	UNLV, UNR, UOP, NATIONAL, DEVRY
Project Coordinators/Managers	Computer and information systems managers plan, coordinate, and direct the computer-related activities in an organization.	34	$ 102,780	Bachelors, Masters, Doctorate	UNLV, UNR, CSN, UOP, DEVRY, NATIONAL
Telecommunications	Communications equipment mechanics set up and maintain equipment that transmits signals to carry information.	41	$ 54,410	AA	CSN, ITT, UOP
Entry Level Techs, Help Desk	Computer support specialists help people solve problems with their computer	173	$ 42,900	AA	UNLV, UNR CSN, NATIONAL, DEVRY